

WORLD CONTRACEPTION DAY 2022 CELEBRATED IN KMU.IMS KOHAT

OBJECTIVE

World Contraception Day is celebrated on 26 September 2022 every year all around the world. It is not only an important event in Pakistan but also in other countries during which organizations and government spread awareness regarding birth spacing. It was in the year 2007 that World Contraception Day was celebrated for the first time. The conference was arranged by KMU.IMS Kohat faculty and Students.

PROCEEDING

The proceeding of the conference was started with awareness walk at 09:00am joined by all the doctors, Nurses, paramedical staff and representative of Administration of LMH Kohat participated. Pro.Vice chancellor Khyber Medical University Peshawar

Prof. Dr. Lal Muhammad also attended in the event. MS DHQ Teaching hospital Kohat along with his Medical Staff also took part in the conference.

The conference was inaugurated by the chief Guest Mr. Zia ullah Khan Bangash (MPA) KP Assembly with his team.

The proceeding of the conference was started with the recitation of the holy Quran. Principal KMU.IMS

Prof.Dr Mussarrat jabeen presented the welcome address to the all the participants. The guest speaker religious scholar, Molana Muhammad Taufail highlighted the Islamic perspective of contraception to audience.

Dr.Sabina durrani DG Family Planning also participated in the conference through Video/Audio Aid to highlight the importance of contraception.

The chief guest also highlighted the importance of the day and appreciated the efforts of both the Medical Superintendents and Particularly Principal KMU.IMS Kohat to arrange campaign, to generate awareness of the different kinds of contraception that women can use. Certificate was awarded by the Chief Guest to the participants

Prof.Dr Fozia Gul presented concluding remarks at the end and Chief Guest was awarded Souvenir

